Profile

I'm a dedicated Full stack software developer, specializing mostly in C#, ASP.NET, Javascript, Angular, SQL Databases, and I also write PHP / Laravel code. Currently, I'm on final year on ICT College, Belgrade. For the past 3.5 years I'm actively learning programming. I'm a hardworking person, and I love working in team since I have 4 years of working experience outside of programming. I have just finished 4 months internship for specialization in ASP.NET and Angular.

Currently I'm actively reading software engineering books such as "Head first design patterns" and "Clean Code" so that i keep improving my knowledge in software engineering and development.
